

Welcome to the

Nova Scotia Health Innovation Hub

Nova Centre – South Tower
13th Floor, 1625 Grafton Street
Halifax, NS B3J 0E8

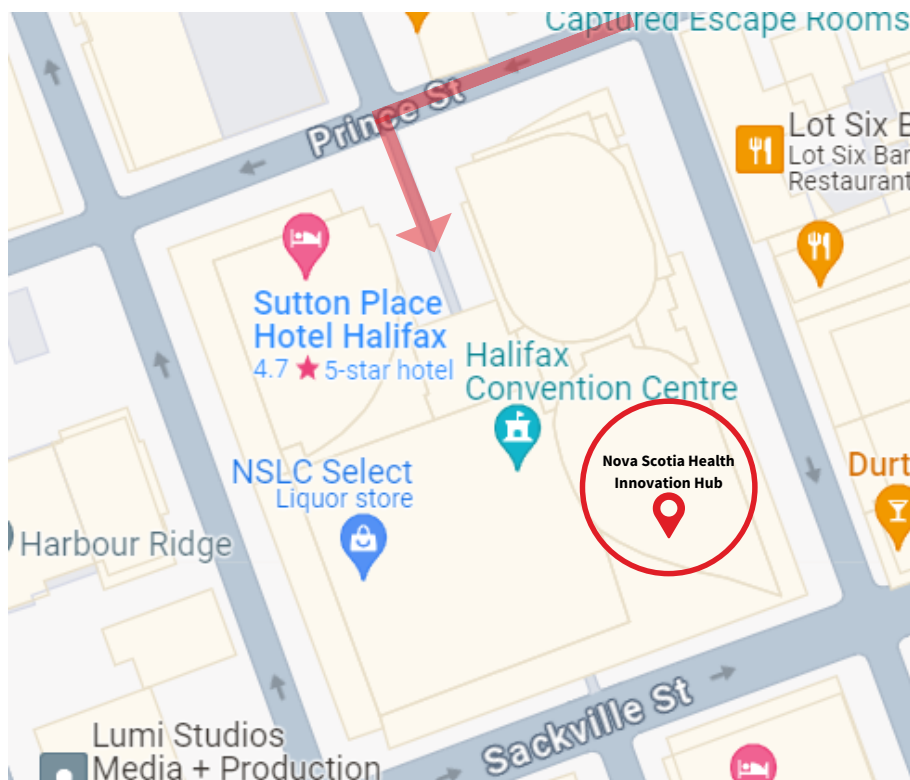

Welcome

The Nova Scotia Health Innovation Hub is located in the South Tower of the Nova Centre. The South Tower entrance (pictured) is located near the Sackville Street side of the building next to the Gahan House restaurant.

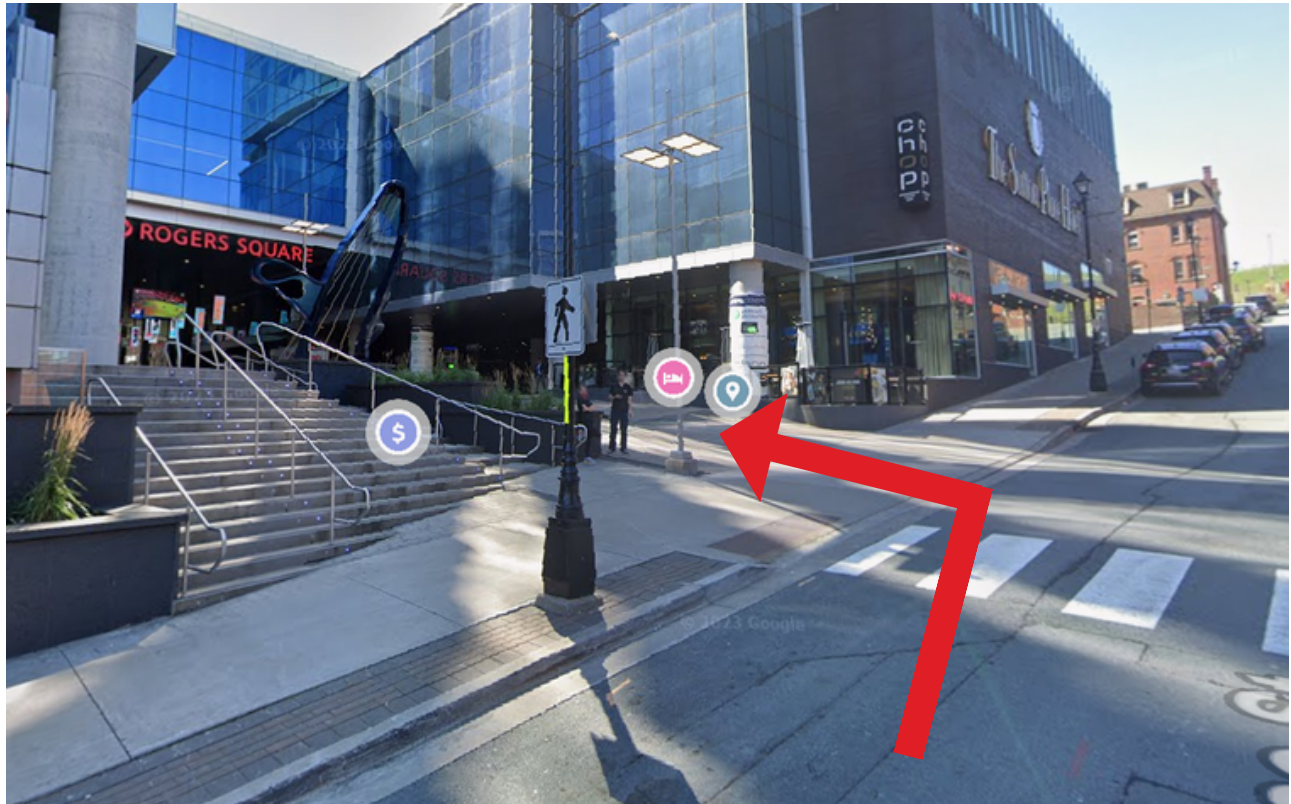

To access the Nova Centre parking, drive West on Prince Street (it is a one-way street) and turn left on Grafton Street where you will enter the Rogers Square.

From Rogers Square you may either enter the South Tower by foot, or you may park in the underground parking and use the South Tower Elevators to take you to the South Tower Lobby.

Accessing Underground Parking

Pictured is your view when turning off of Prince Street onto Grafton Street. Simply follow the arrows and other signage to enter the underground parking lot.

Upon entering the parkade, you will be instructed to take a ticket. This ticket is payable upon departure at any of these pay stations (pictured).

Accessing the NSH Innovation Hub

To access the Nova Scotia Health Innovation Hub from the underground parking lot, you must first locate the South Tower elevators.

The designated colour is a plum purple and signage will be marked with “South Tower”.

When you see the South Tower Elevator Directory, this means you’re at the correct elevator.

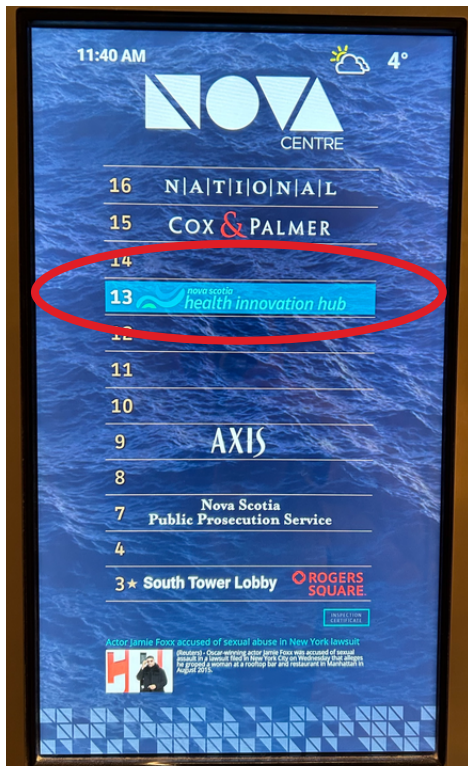

Accessing the NSH Innovation Hub

Take the South Tower elevator to the 3rd floor, here, you will find yourself stepping off the Parking Elevator into the South Tower Lobby.

From the lobby, you will then take one of the other three elevators (pictured) to the 13th floor.

Accessing the NSH Innovation Hub

In the South Tower Elevator, simply press on the Nova Scotia Health Innovation Hub (Floor 13). No key card is necessary to enter the office between 7:00AM and 7:00PM.

After stepping off the elevator, the main door to the Nova Scotia Health Innovation Hub will be to your left.
