

When “good enough” just isn’t enough for the ones you love.

Others claim it, but we can prove it.

3M has over 70 pieces of clinical evidence supporting 3M™ Cavilon™ No Sting Barrier Film use in a wide variety of clinical applications: prevention of incontinence-associated dermatitis¹; medical adhesive related skin injuries²; protection of skin around wounds³; ostomies⁴ and devices; and protection of skin during radiation therapy^{5,6}.
